| 1 Second Sunday in Lent. You gave me a new heart when I was born again. Your spirit is with me & Your grace fills me. May I share Your love with the world. Let me be a vessel of blessing to Your people. | 2 Lord Jesus, send us Your healing “rain”. Let it fall upon us and heal broken spirits, infirm bodies and meaningless lives. Let it cleanse and prepare the soil of our churches for Your Word. | 3 Out of many readers, someone reading this is hurting. Please know that the Lord knows where you are and what you are experiencing. Invite Him in and ask for help. You also have our prayers. | 4 Father, I pray that the light of Your revelation will illumine America’s churches. Remove unproductive vines. Prune, purify & restore. Raise up those who will shepherd in Your Word. | 5 Lord, I sense that You are doing new things among us and in the Body of Christ. Calm our fears of change and give us vision to embrace restoration. Help us see new paths now prepared. | 6 Lord Jesus, we are concerned about the falling away we see in America. Empower Your people to stand against the evil that would consume us. Let us not grow weary we know You will triumph | 7 How often has God opened doors for us but we were not willing to follow Him into new plans Father, help us to let go of the old in order to take hold of the new. Courage to leave our comfort zone. |
| 8 Daylight Savings Time Third Sunday in Lent. Knowing that my God is always present with me makes me want to celebrate. God, we praise You. May our worship reach Your Throne | 9 Lord, whenever my faith is tested, somehow, remind me of Your promise that You will never forsake me. Lord, I know that You can perform miracles. How foolish to doubt. | 10 I cannot discover the victory of Christianity by remaining an aloof spectator. Easter invites me to get in the game. Pray about how Jesus wants you to get involved as His servant. | 11 Lord, I know that You have great plans for me. Remove the obstacles, problems, negativity that blocks my vision of what You desire for me. Renew my mind for great new things. | 12 Lord, our culture, entertainment, institutions have slowly been claimed by sin and immorality. Let us shepherd one another to keep from slipping and making bad choices. | 13 I pray for my children, grandchildren, children in my church. Pray for them lest they be snatched away by godlessness. Pray for adults to nurture them. Jesus, claim them early. | 14 Lord, help me to examine my relationship with money and material possessions. Please give me wisdom to control them instead of them controlling me. Help me to be a cheerful giver |
| 15 Fourth Sunday in Lent Dear Father, be real to us today as we praise & worship You. We pray Your Holy Spirit will seek out those whose faith is at a low ebb. Give us renewal and refreshment. | 16 The times we live in cause many to live in fear. Financial fears, fear of illness, terrorism, fear of the unknown. Thank you Jesus for taking fear out of the darkness and into the light. You are my rock, strength and hope. | 17 Lord, I pray for the church; I pray for my church. I pray that we will be joined together in unity and that we will encourage one another. Help everyone discover their gifts/talents & how to use them. | 18 Lord Jesus, I hunger to know You more fully. I stand in the gap and plead for wisdom and counsel only You can give. Teach me Your ways and strengthen me by confirming Your presence. | 19 Lord remind me. Better is one day in Your courts than a thousand elsewhere. How lovely, Your dwelling in place. My heart satisfied in Your presence. Shelter me beneath the shadow of Your wings. | 20 Lord, inspire me to be sensitive to those who are grieving and to be an instrument of Your grace. Remind me to be fully dependent on You when I minister to others. To be Your instrument. | 21 Lord Jesus, You commanded us to love one another. How beautiful it is when we live in unity. Unity in our families, our church and as a people. We pray You will empower us to cast out hate and unforgiveness. |
| 22 Fifth Sunday in Lent. Dear God, immerse us in Your word as we praise and worship You today. Renew our minds with the truth that changes and conforms us to the image of Jesus Christ | 23 Dear Lord, give us all hearts for prayer and worship; not just today in church but every day of the week. We come to you with prayers and petitions that You will bless us, our families & all who profess you as Lord. | 24 Father, there are times of challenge for all of us in Your Church. Let us not retreat or slumber. Give us fresh faith, wisdom and vision to claim all that has been lost. No doubt and weakness in our prayers. | 25 Let us pray for the strength to break through strongholds in our life that keep us from obedience to what God wants for us. Give us faith and resolve to live in obedience to God who deserves and demands it. | 4 Pray that you might clearly understand the difference of being “in church” and being “the church.” Pray that God will reveal to you those things that hinder your growth to spiritual maturity. | 27 Someone reading this has tried over and over again to overcome some specific sin in their life. Jesus, please help us realize we cannot do it on our own. Here is my hand Lord, only You can lead me to the higher ground. | 28 It is God’s will that we should hear and preach Christ crucified in our churches. Pray for spiritually mature leaders who will assist your pastor in proclaiming the Gospel of Christ in your church |
| 29 Palm Sunday. Messiah, Christ, our King. You chose to walk that road out of Your love for each of us. Jesus, we praise You above all kingdoms, above all treasures. We love You | 30 Pray for our missionaries going out into the world to share the gospel. Pray for any missionaries you know. Pray about unreached people who may be living in your community. Be | 31 It is every Christian’s privilege and responsibility to be involved in the ministry of their church. Pray about how you are a minister of Christ. (2 Cor.4:1): about being a participator. | PRAYER FOCUS (Matt 28:19-20, The Great Commission) Pray that many Brethren experience new passion and recommitment for | Jesus’ command to “make disciples.” Pray we see the fire of faith/commitment reignited in our churches beginning this Easter Sunday. | Subscribe to the Daily Prayer Calendar for a bulletin/newsletter or free personal copy.
